

12 Essential Must-Try San Diego Summer Cocktails

Food & Drink From guava foam to smoked dates — put these 12 places on your summer cocktail bucket list

There's something refreshingly memorable about the perfectly concocted summer sipper in San Diego. Its jovial nature. Its cooling demeanor on those consistently sweet 75 degree days.

Perhaps you're looking for a place to venture after the beach or before your much-anticipated dinner extravaganza. Whatever the reason, these 12 essential San Diego summer cocktails are sure to ignite excitement in all eager imbibers.

Caribe Welcome from Miss B's Coconut Club

Making its mark in north Mission Beach is Miss B's Coconut Club — an island-inspired eatery that celebrates a rich Caribbean culture in north Mission Beach. Their Caribe Welcome is handcrafted with Puerto Rican rum, apricot brandy, Coco Lopez coconut water and fresh lime juice. The best part? It's served in a whole young coconut.

