THE DISH

WHERE TO EAT OUT ON THANKSGIVING

BY CAROLINA GUSMAN

Can you believe it? Thanksgiving is next Thursday. No need to stress. A cornucopia of restaurants will be open for the holiday ready to serve you a bountiful feast of traditional and nontraditional holiday dishes ranging from roast turkey with all the trimmings to chef-driven sushi plates.

All menus are served on Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 22, unless otherwise indicated. Reservations are required where indicated.

Barleymash's three-course dinner features a main course of andouille (sausage)-stuffed turkey roulade (roll), garlic mashed potatoes, brown ale biscuit stuffing, Brussels sprout casserole and roasted baby carrots. Seating starts at 2 p.m. 600 Fifth Ave., Gaslamp Quarter. $45 per person. Reservations: Lizzie, (619) 255-7373; email lizzie@barleymashsd.com

Bub's @ the Beach will serve a Turkey Dinner Plate ($12) with creamy mashed potatoes, cranberries and a dinner roll, plus Chef Fuego's famous stuffing waffle. Pair it with Bub's November SoCo Mule of the Month ($7), crafted from Southern Comfort whiskey, fresh lime, bitters and Red Bull Organics Ginger Ale. It's garnished with a gummy gator. 1030 Garnet Ave., Pacific Beach. (858) 270-7269. bubspd.com

FIG TREE CAFÉ
